Keep in mind, silver tequila (used in many of our cocktails and margaritas) can sneak up on you. The smooth flavor doesn't taste like alcohol, but we assure you, it's in there!

COCKTAILS

TEQUILA + MEZCAL Now you know!

SILVER (aka blanco) tequila is un-aged and has no additives.

GOLD (aka oro or joven) is also un-aged, but contains things like caramel coloring and wood extract to make it seem like it was aged in an oak cask.

REPOSADO means the tequila is aged or "rested" in an oak barrel for at least 2 months but less than 1 year.

AÑEJO receives the same treatment as reposado, but is aged for 1 to 3 years.

AGAVE means the tequila is made with a higher percentage of the agave plant (all tequilas must be 51% or more), and in most cases it denotes 100% agave.

MEZCAL is a Mexican distilled spirit similar to tequila with a smokey and peaty flavor. It can use any type of agave native to Mexico.
